MEDIA ADVISORY

RICHMOND GRAND COMMUNITY MEETINGS CONTINUE ACROSS CITY

Richmond Grand's series of community informational meetings continues this week with residents of the 4th District, 3rd District, and the Greater Scott's Addition Association. Representatives of the project will discuss the features and citywide benefits of Richmond Grand and answers citizens' questions on the project. Previous community meetings have been held in Council Districts 1, 6, and 8, with a coalition of Northside civic associations, and with individual neighborhood/community associations.

Richmond Grand, a $562 million resort, casino, and entertainment complex which will be located off I-95 in South Richmond, is projected to create at least 1,300 well-paying permanent careers averaging $55,000 in annual compensation including benefits, thousands of construction jobs, and at least $30 million in annual tax revenue for the City of Richmond. It is a joint venture of Churchill Downs, Incorporated and Urban One, Incorporated and will use no public funds, incentives, or tax breaks.
